

Gratitude Encounter

An Immersive and interactive experience to activate gratitude for teams and organizations with Kevin Monroe Gratitude Consulting

Gratitude IS
the gateway to abundance.

Gratitude Experienced is better than gratitude explained. There is something unique that happens when people experience and share gratitude together.

- Gratitude grows.
- It deepens.
- It lingers

Workers and workplaces around the world are experiencing a multitude of challenges.

Fear and uncertainty abound. People feel isolated and alone; Disconnected and overwhelmed.

Leaders are looking for meaningful ways to connect, inspire, and equip their people with skills and experiences that help them cope, even flourish, during these challenging times.

Gratitude is now an essential skill to successfully navigate the challenges of life and work.

IMMERSING PEOPLE INTO GRATITUDE IS BETTER THAN INFORMING THEM ABOUT GRATITUDE

How we help your team experience Gratitude

1. Co-Create a gratitude encounter that incorporates your company's values, and responds to your needs and challenges.
2. Deliver a 60 – minute interactive and engaging gratitude encounter allowing your team to explore, express and experience gratitude together.
3. Mobilize action with a tangible call to action inviting people to express gratitude in the workplace and beyond through sharing I am Grateful for you cards.
